"We are consistently astounded by the talent and passion we've seen from aspiring young performers across the province. As a professional company, we feel a responsibility to develop the artists of tomorrow," says Alex Mustakas, Artistic Director of Drayton Entertainment. "Our Youth Musical Theatre Program sessions and Children's Chorus opportunities help to prepare young talent for future success."

Auditions will be used to determine participants for the Youth Musical Theatre Program in Penetanguishene, and the Children's Chorus for Sleeping Beauty: The Panto at the King's Wharf Theatre. Young performers must sign up in advance. Auditions will be held on Saturday, February 8 at James Keating Public School in Penetanguishene.

Youth Musical Theatre Program

Now in its fifth year, the Drayton Entertainment Youth Musical Theatre Program (YMTP) is an auditioned training program designed to cultivate community, encourage leadership, ignite imagination, and boost confidence, while providing aspiring young performers with the opportunity to learn from professional theatre artists and develop a deeper appreciation for live performance. Students train with passionate industry professionals in singing, dancing, acting, audition technique and technical theatre.

There will be a week-long training session in Penetanguishene from July 20 to July 24 for ages 10 to 18. More information about the Youth Musical Theatre Program, including tuition costs and audition requirements, is available at www.youthmusicaltheatreprogram.com.

Sleeping Beauty: The Panto Children's Chorus

The Children's Chorus Program offers young performers the opportunity to audition for the youth ensemble in the company's panto production alongside professional performers in the lead roles.

Young performers ages 9 to 15 are invited to audition for the children's chorus ensemble in Sleeping Beauty: The Panto, which will be on stage at King's Wharf Theatre from June 10 to June 27. Youth cast in the production will be divided into teams, and will perform in the show on a rotating schedule. Auditions will be held on Saturday, February 8. Advance registration is required.

Associate Artistic Director David Connolly will direct and choreograph the production. Connolly's impressive résumé includes work on major musicals like the pre-Broadway production of First Wives Club in Chicago and numerous Drayton Entertainment productions including Hairspray, Mamma Mia!, and the previous family pantos Jack and the Beanstalk, Cinderella, Aladdin and Snow White.
